

AAG Bursary

Description of Bursary:

Caring for older adults, in a diversity of settings, is an increasingly large part of health and human service provision in Alberta. Numerous team members bring their expertise and skills to their work with older adults. This bursary recognizes the desire of workers to “upgrade” their knowledge and skills.

Eligibility:

- Health or human care worker in the province of Alberta.
- Minimum of two years full time work in health care or human services in Alberta.

Guidelines:

- Bursary will be announced in AAG newsletter and on website.
- Applications will be accepted within the general scholarship call of the AAG.
- All applications will be reviewed by members of the AAG scholarship committee.
- The AAG scholarship committee will make a recommendation to the Board of the AAG.
- The final decision for the bursary will be made by the Board of the AAG.
- Priority is given to applicants who are or will be enrolling in a recognized academic program.
- Maximum award is $1,000.00.
- Awards are presented at the discretion of the AAG Board and available funds.
